

CREDIT BUREAU WINS BACKING OF LOCAL MERCHANTS

A delegation of merchants, representing five of the communities of the township, met at the International Kitchen last Friday noon and expressed their approval of a township-wide credit bureau.

The group unanimously agreed that there is a definite need for such a credit clearing house here and expressed belief that it should be owned and operated by the local merchants. Such a recommendation will be submitted to the Township Chamber of Commerce at its next meeting for endorsement.

Charles McCarty, H. H. Hammond and Bryce Faunte, who operate a reporting and collection agency in San Jose, attended the meeting and agreed to set up the system here for the merchants and underwrite the original cost.

Merchants attending the meeting were: Carl Christensen and Allan Hirsch, Irvington; Jack Parry and Walter Chrysler, Niles; Bernie Joseph, Decoto; Earl Freitas, Judge Allen G. Norris, Dallas Paul and Ralph Goodwin, Centerville, and Paul Gyax and Lawrence Costa, Newark. Judge Norris presided over the meeting.

The proposed bureau would make available to member merchants the credit ratings on persons residing in this area.

ALVARADO MAN BEATEN, ROBBED

An Alvarado laborer is recovering this week from a severe beating administered early Friday morning by a barroom acquaintance who robbed him of $20 after offering him a ride home.

The victim, Francisco Laurel, 39, Box 430 Niles Road, Alvarado, had 18 stitches taken in his face and head as a result of the beating.

Laurel told sheriff's deputies that he left an Alvarado bar shortly after midnight with a man who offered him a ride.

Driving to Alquire Road, his attacker demanded his wallet. When he refused to give up his money the man struck him repeatedly about the face and head with a blunt instrument and threw him out of the car.

Laurel regained consciousness to find his wallet missing. He staggered a mile back to Alvarado where he was found by Albert Escandon, 24, P. O. Box 870, Alvarado.

STATE INCOME TAX DEPUTY HERE MARCH 13-29

A California State Income Tax deputy will be stationed at the Central Bank in Niles on March 13 and March 29 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. to assist taxpayers in the preparation of their 1949 state income tax returns.

Thomas H. Kuchel, chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, stated in making the announcement, that every single person having a net income of $2,000 or married persons with a combined net income of $3,500, must file a return.

These returns must be filed on or before April 15 in order to avoid penalty.

SUPERVISORS ASK DELAY IN PAY HIKE

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors at their meeting Tuesday requested that the state legislators not introduce any legislation affecting the salaries of the supervisors until a survey of all salaries of the county has been completed.

Chairman Harry Bartell pointed out that the last two Grand Juries of Alameda County have recommended increases in the supervisors' salaries, reporting that the supervisors are now required to give their full time in the performance of their duties.

He added that an erroneous statement recently credited the supervisors with requesting a salary of $1,000 per month. Said Bartell, "There is no truth, and never has been, to this statement."

The present salary of the supervisors is $650 per month plus automobile and expenses.

BODIES OF LOCAL BROTHERS TO BE BROUGHT HOME

The bodies of two township boys killed in the late war will be brought home for burial Monday, according to M. J. Bernardo, Centerville, father of the boys. He received word this week from the government.

The body of Staff Sgt. Stanley E. Bernardo will be shipped from France, where he was killed in action on March 21, 1945, while serving with Patton's Third Army. He was 20 years old at the time of his death.

The body of his brother, T/S Joseph J. Bernardo, will be brought home from the Philippines. He died on Bataan in the March of Death, on July 11, 1942. He was 30 years old at the time of his death.

The brothers will be buried at Holy Ghost Cemetery, following funeral rites Wednesday morning at 9:30, to be conducted by the Chapel of the Palms.

BURGLARY CASES TO SUPERIOR COURT

Three Southern Alameda County youths, charged with a series of burglaries here, had their cases certified to superior court when they appeared before Judge Allen G. Norris in Centerville last Friday.

The defendants are: Clinton A. Lukens, 22, and Glenn E. Todd, 23, both of Hayward, and Richard L. Meader, 19, of Castro Valley.

Todd, through his attorney, Patrick J. O'Reilly, San Francisco, waived preliminary examination and was held to answer on four counts of burglary.

Lukens entered a plea of guilty to the first and fourth counts and the state dismissed the second and third counts.

Meader entered a plea of guilty to the first count and the state dismissed the second and third counts.

The men were charged with burglarizing a Berkeley supply store on February 4, a Hayward store on February 3, the O'Mara Home Furnishings Store in Newark on January 27, and attempting to loot a pay telephone at Machado Corners on February 11.

ENSIGN BENDEL ASSIGNED TO AIRPORT CARRIER

Ensign Roland Bendel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bendel of Niles, has been assigned to the U. S. Navy 114th Fighter Squadron aboard the U. S. S. Valley Forge based in San Diego. Ensign Bendel, who recently received his navy wings as a pilot, spent last month with his parents here on leave.

Residents of Irvington were asked this week to begin saving their old newspapers and magazines for a forthcoming Cub Scout paper drive. Exact date of the drive will be announced in next week's issue of The Township Register.

PLANS REVEALED FOR NEW 80-HOME TRACT AT NEWARK

A new tract, which is expected to become the site for approximately 80 new homes, will be opened within the next few weeks in Newark.

The tract is bounded by Thornton and Dairy Avenues and the Newark Elementary School property, and has been sold by Joaquin Caldeira to Robertson and Jones, a San Francisco realty firm.

Three new streets will be opened through the 16-acre tract.

According to present plans, Hillsdale Avenue will divide the tract, running parallel to Thornton Avenue. Arden Avenue will be opened to connect Dairy and Thornton and a new street, to be known as Hills Avenue, will also connect Thornton and Dairy.

Actual construction is expected to get underway early this spring.

The area adjoining the tract on Thornton Avenue is now rapidly filling up with new homes. Clyde Lindsay, Newark contractor, has four new homes under construction across from the Newark Pavilion and R. A. Griffin, Irvington contractor, is building a new home for Frank Gyax on the opposite side of Thornton.

VOTE SEWER BONDS FOR NILES ANNEX

Voters of the area south of Niles recently annexed to the Union Sanitary District decided Tuesday in favor of the issuance of $60,000 in bonds for the construction of sewers. The vote was 102 for and 10 against.

The district board of directors will meet Tuesday evening in Niles at the office of E. E. Dias to canvass the vote.

According to President George Coit of the sanitary district, construction should begin in June. Before the work can start, the bonds must be issued and sold and construction bids called for. Completion of the sewerage should be in September, he stated.

NEW DECOTO SCHOOL TO BE NAMED AFTER PIONEER EDUCATOR

The new school building now under construction at Decoto will be completed in time for the reopening of school next fall and will be known as the Henry Barnard School.

L. W. Musick, district superintendent and principal of the school, announced this week that the Board of Trustees of the school have selected the name to honor one of America's most outstanding education leaders and the first U. S. Commissioner of Education.

Henry Barnard, for whom the school will be named, was a Yale graduate. He served in the Connecticut legislature and later became secretary for the State Board of Commission for Common Schools in that state. In 1839 he was active in the organization of the first teachers' institute in this country.

REORGANIZED SYSTEM

In 1849 he became the editor of the American Journal of Education and in that capacity he re-wrote school laws, increased taxation for schools, checked the powers of the district and laid the foundation of a state school system. He also served as chancellor of the University of Wisconsin and president of St. John's College.

Barnard's services in education were not those of a teacher, but rather the colorful adventures of a statesman who was determined to combat ignorance to perfect the U. S. school system. He sacrificed $40,000 of his own fortune to carry on his fight and died a poor man in 1900.

His name was selected by the Decoto principal and trustees from a list of 44 leaders in the field of early American education.

4 GRADES IN NEW BUILDING

Musick said this week that when the 1950-51 school term opens next fall, the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be housed in the new building. One kindergarten class, to accommodate children from the north and west side of town, will also convene at the new building. The remainder of the classes will continue to be held in the old building.

The initial cost for the new building, not including the 24 acres on which the structure is located, is $198,000, Musick said. He added that when the remainder of the proposed school plant is completed it will represent an expenditure of $450,000. Yet to be built is a multi-purpose room to serve as an auditorium and cafeteria, and the other half of the administration building. Musick pointed out that 93 per cent of the cost is financed by the state with the local district financing the remaining seven per cent.

He added that it appears that earthquake proofing of units in the old structure would amount to 75 per cent of the cost of new construction, therefore the board decided that units of the old plant and the annex will eventually be replaced by new construction.

The Decoto Elementary School, largest in Washington Township, now has an enrollment of 650 and Musick said that he has "evidence of an increase enrollment of 500 to 600 next year."

PIONEER'S NAME FOR NEW BRIDGE

The Alvarado Chamber of Commerce has received the approval of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors on its request to name the new highway bridge on Marsh Road in honor of the McKeown family.

Leslie Maffey, Chamber secretary, said this week that the new $100,000 concrete bridge will probably be named McKeown Bridge in honor of the pioneer family whose ranch is adjacent to the new span.

Appropriate dedication ceremonies are being worked out by President Walter Oakey and his committee. Exact date of completion of the new bridge has not yet been announced.

FARM SUBSIDIES TOPIC OF FORUM MEETING MONDAY

"Federal Subsidies — Brannan and Anderson Plans", is the topic of the Forum meeting to be held next Monday evening, March 13 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium at Washington Union High School.

Monday evening's meeting will be the second in a series of four lectures presented to the public without charge by the Washington Evening School.

Speaker of the evening will be George Alcorn, marketing specialist, who will interpret the two farm subsidy plans and discuss the effects on farmers and non-farmers. Mr. Alcorn received his M. A. from the University of California and is widely known for his papers on current economic situations. He has recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he was active in the Extension Service Conference on Public Policy Programs.

Warren Gravestock, principal of the evening school, said this week, "Mr. Alcorn is especially well qualified to make this presentation. He is constantly working in an advisory capacity for the United States Department of Agriculture."

Two more Forum meetings will be held this season. On March 27, Matt Triggs, director of the Commodity Service Department, California Farm Bureau Federation, will speak on the topic, "Outlook for Expanding Markets for Farm Products." On April 10, Cruz Ventrom, also with the Farm Bureau Federation, will speak on the subject, "The Concern of Farmers in Social Security."

W.U.H.S. ALUMNI WILL HOLD MEET

A meeting of the Washington Union High School Alumni Association will be held in the school cafeteria Monday evening, March 20, at 8 o'clock, was announced this week by President John Cattaneo.

Future activities of the association will be discussed and membership cards will be given out, Cattaneo stated.

NILES MAN SEVERELY BITTEN BY DOG

An attempt to separate two fighting dogs resulted in painful injuries last Friday for Leland Crane, 845 Second Street, Niles.

When Crane opened the door of his home to leave for work his small dog darted out onto the porch and was immediately attacked by a large hound dog belonging to a neighbor.

Crane rescued his small dog but was severely bitten on the hand by the hound. Four stitches were required to close the wound.

DISTRICT COMMUNION SUNDAY FOR Y.L.I.

The members of St. Jude's Institute, Y.L.I., of Irvington, and De Guadalupe Institute, Y.L.I., of Niles, will hold their annual district communion with the Knights of Columbus on Sunday at the 8 a.m. mass at Holy Ghost Church in Centerville.

Breakfast will be served the group at the cafeteria of Washington Union High School following the mass.

PSYCHOLOGIST TO TALK AT NILES SCHOOL

Mrs. Dorothy McLendon, school psychologist from the county office, will be the speaker on the program for next Tuesday's meeting of the Niles P.T.A., according to Mrs. Frank Andrade, president.

PATTERSON, PROUTY, BERNARDO RETAINED ON WATER BOARD

The election set for March 28 for the naming of three members to the Alameda County Water District Board was cancelled yesterday by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and the three unopposed candidates declared re-elected.

The three candidates who will begin another four-year term as the result of the action are W. D. Patterson, Centerville; Jack Prouty, Mission San Jose, and M. J. Bernardo, Centerville.

The three men were the only candidates for the posts and the county supervisors' action saved the district the cost of holding an election.

To Elect President

The three newly elected members will meet with the other two members of the board, Dr. E. M. Grimmer, Irvington, and L. S. Amaral, Centerville at the district's office in Centerville next Tuesday to elect a president.

The re-election of Patterson marks the beginning of the 37th year that he has served as a board member of the district. He was first elected in 1914 and has served as president of the board for the past 20 years, leading the fight to obtain an adequate and permanent supply of water for this area.

In recognition of his background and knowledge of water and flood control problems the board of supervisors recently named Patterson to head the Alameda County Flood Control District.

M. J. Bernardo will begin his third four-year term as a member of the board next week. He has given generously of his time and efforts during his life-time in Washington Township. In addition to his position on the water board he is a board member of the Union Sanitary District, serving that capacity since the district was formed more than 25 years ago.

Bernardo is also a member of the Board of Trustees of Washington Union High School and at one time was a constable at Centerville. He is a past president of the Alameda County Farm Bureau and a director in the Berryessa Local of the Aprioc Growers' Association.

Junior Member

Jack Prouty is the junior member of the water board, beginning his second term next week.

He came to Washington Township in 1935 after completing his studies at the University of California and coaching at Berkeley High and Crockett. His first position here was that of vice-principal of Decoto Elementary School. After two years in Decoto he became principal of Irvington Elementary School, a position he held for five years. It was during his administration at Irvington that the new school was erected and enough additional land taken into the district to make it the richest district in the township.

For more than four years he was associated with L. E. Bailey, vegetable grower and shipper, at Centerville. He recently entered business for himself and is now subdividing two tracts, one near Niles and one near Irvington. He has also purchased a ranch near Tracy.

WASHINGTON OPENS WITH WIN, LOSS

The Washington Varsity baseball club won its opening game of the season last Friday on the home diamond by dumping San Jose High 5 to 3, but slipped into an early-season slumber Tuesday and awakened on the short end of a 5-3 score with Lincoln High.

Coach Irv Hird's lads put up a good performance in their season opener, displaying a wide-awake brand of ball seldom seen on high school diamonds in the early season. However, their dozing on the bases in Tuesday's game left Hird gnawing his fingernails.

Bettencourt and Berrios each got two hits for three trips to the plate last Friday to lead the Washington attack. Elizarray and Rego shared the pitching duties and held the San Jose nine to a scattered six hits.

Juhl paced his Huskie teammates at the plate Tuesday, getting three for three. Elizarray, Castro and Rego worked on the mound for the locals and Rego was credited as the losing pitcher.

The box scores:

GAME TODAY

The Huskies will play Half Moon Bay on the home diamond at 3:30 p.m. today. Coach Hird has named Elizarray and Pagan as the starting battery.

Next Tuesday the local squad will journey to San Jose for a return game with Lincoln.

FARM ADVISOR TELLS TOMATO PLANTING METHODS

Take your choice of seeding tomatoes directly into the bed or using the seedbed cold frame method. Farm Advisor Lee Benson of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service says there are advantages to both methods.

The advantages of planting the seeds directly in the beds where they can stay until time for transplanting are numerous. The hazard of spreading diseases is less because the plants are handled less. The plants, themselves, take two or three weeks less time to reach field planting size because their growth has not been slowed up by another transplanting.

Labor costs are less because labor requirements are less. The labor load is spread more evenly over the entire plant growing period. The beds can often be started later in the winter when the weather is more favorable, because they have a shorter growing period.

Benson says there are also arguments on the side of planting the seed into the seedbed, separating and transplanting the seedlings to cold frames when they have two to four true leaves, and later transferring them to the field. In this method the seed is broadcast thickly in the seedbed, thus conserving plant space during the first part of the growing period.

The area which must be seeded, watered, and taken care of during the germinating period is smaller than in the direct-seeded cold frame method. When soil temperatures are too cool in the cold frames, small hot beds can be used to germinate the seed.

The Agricultural Extension Service office has received a supply of a new bulletin on tomato propagation covering the subjects of growing plants for transplanting and planting directly into the field. Copies are free upon request at Post Office building, Hayward.

By ELAINE HOWE

During the Lenten season we of the Christian faith try to pause and ponder a bit on the significance of the man Jesus, and the doctrine of love which he preached. There are many inspiring books one might read; here are a few.

Many great authors have tried to interpret Jesus Christ. Harry Emerson Fosdick, well known National Vespers radio preacher, has written "The Man from Nazareth" as His Contemporaries saw Him. Projecting the reader back into the very heart of the time, Mr. Fosdick portrays Jesus from the point of view of the Pharisees, or the outcasts, or perhaps as the women and children might have seen him. It is inspiring and yet easy reading.

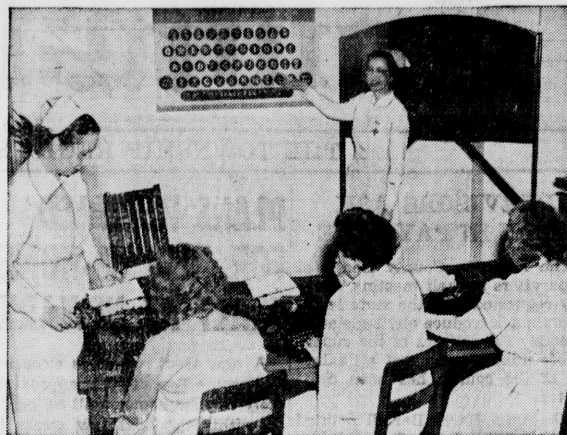

Pierre Van Paassen also felt a great interest in the backgrounds of Jesus' story. In "Why Jesus Died," he digs out of the mass of stories, legends and doctrines a new interpretation of the facts of his life—plus some never before mentioned. This too is thought-provoking and sincere.

To Catholics 1950 has the special significance of Holy Year. Many people will make pilgrimages to Rome, millions more will read about the ceremonies performed there. To help visualize we have, "The Vatican, Behind the Scenes in the Holy City," by Anne Carnahan with photographs by David Seymour. It presents an account of all phases of life in the smallest state in the world. The 150 accompanying photographs give a vivid picture of life within its walls. A color movie of the same name, based on this book, is now being made in Rome and will be released before Easter.

An inspiring story of a courageous woman is "Mother Seton, Mother of Many Daughters," by Rev. Charles White. Mrs. Seton became a Catholic in middle life and founded a girls' school which led to the establishment of Sisters of Charity. Today from her small beginnings have grown 900 schools, hospitals and orphanages maintained by her order.

A very beautiful book is "In Our Image," in which some of the stories of the Old Testament—Job, Abraham, Ruth and Naomi—are edited down to easy reading. They are accompanied by Guy Rowe's wonderful paintings, many of which appeared in Time Magazine last fall.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

SELECT REFRIGERATOR TO FIT YOUR KITCHEN

General Electric Consumers Institute

An admirer is supposed once to have asked Napoleon how he was able to produce almost instantaneously a complete plan of action for almost any eventuality. The future emperor of Elba answered that it was because of his day dreaming.

He went on to explain that one of his favorite pastimes was to imagine a set of circumstances in which he might find himself at some future time and then plan step by step how he would meet and overcome them.

Whether this story is true, there is good advice here for those thousands of people who today are marking time until they can build that dream house. Although it may be some years yet before they actually start construction, there is a lot of practical dreaming they can do which will be invaluable when the long-awaited day dawns.

For example, the lady of the house can start right now to plan the kind of kitchen she wants and to make purchases of needed appliances for her present home which will fit in snugly with the kitchen of the roseate home of the future.

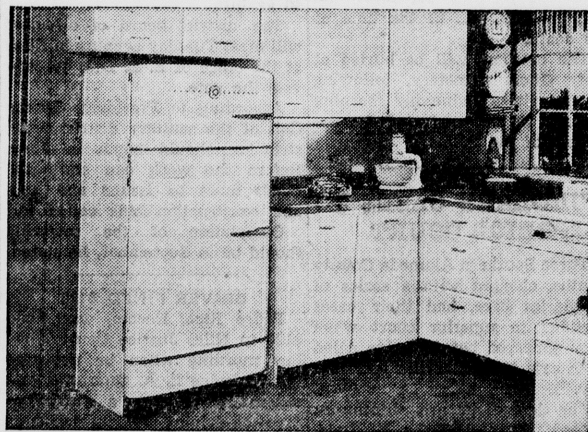

It is possible that before the dream house foundations are even started she will have to buy a new refrigerator for her present home. If she has already planned the kind of kitchen she wants, she may be able to make her new one more efficient by getting the refrigerator with the kind of door which will fit her new kitchen best.

Although many people are unaware of it, it is possible to have refrigerators with either a left or a right-hand door—not for the convenience to people who may favor one hand over the other but so that extra steps and awkwardness in using the refrigerator may be avoided.

Assembly-line Cooking
Consider the ideal kitchen layout. The refrigerator is located near the outside door for the easy storage of the food as it comes into the house. From the refrigerator the food moves to the food processing center—the sink—and thence to the range for cooking. After the meal the line of work is reversed.

Suppose the sink and range are to the right of the refrigerator. If the latter's door opens to the right, it is necessary to move around it to the work surface and other appliances with the food stored in the refrigerator. In other words, the door is a barrier between the food storage center and the rest of the food preparation assembly line. However, with a door which opens to the left this barrier is removed and a staggering total of steps and extra movements are saved in the course of a year.

In planning a new kitchen, be sure to put in a refrigerator that opens into the working area, as here. Then you don't have to walk around the door every time you want to take out an ice tray.

One of the most efficient bus lines in the state is operated entirely within the boundaries of Washington Township.

This bus system transports approximately 225,300 persons some 77,700 miles annually and, because it charges no fares, it runs some $13,700 in the red each year. Yet the directors are very well satisfied with the system and certainly have no intention of disbanding the operation of their seven buses.

The transportation line, which defies all rules of private business enterprise, is the splendid bus system operated by Washington Union High School to transport its students.

GET EARLY START

Each week day morning at 7:15 o'clock the seven big buses leave the school grounds near Centerville to begin picking up their cargo of young students. By 8:55 a.m. all the buses are back at the school, having made a minimum of two trips.

At 2:48 p.m. the first busloads leave the school grounds to return the students to their homes. The last trip, the one that delivers the athletes who stay at the school to participate in sports, arrives back at the school at 6 p.m.

All but 12 of the 690 students at the school are transported by bus and in the 25 years that the buses have been operated not one student has ever been injured in a highway accident.

A large portion of the outstanding safety record can be attributed to rigid requirements which must be met before a man is authorized to operate one of the buses. Applicants must pass the chauffeur and bus driver examination, must pass a physical examination and must have completed a first-aid training course.

Another requirement imposed by J. V. Gould, district superintendent and principal of the school, is that the driver must have the ability to "get along with children." At present there are 13 licensed bus drivers, the majority being members of the school faculty.

FEW DIFFICULTIES

Gould is proud of the fact that unlike most other school buses, the students are not assigned seats. Students are handed a set of ten rules to be followed when they first board the bus at the beginning of each school year. Failure to comply with these rules means a visit to the office of "Pop" Gould and a "straightening out" of the matter. There has been a minimum of difficulties.

Further bearing out that the long safety record is no mere coincidence are the carefully planned rules and regulations which have been put in force over the years.

For example, on days when visibility is limited by fog or rain, the buses are rerouted and are not allowed to cross railroad tracks where there are no wig-wag signals. The students beyond those points are informed that on such mornings they will meet the bus at some designated place which will afford the greatest degree of safety.

If it is necessary for a student to cross the road to reach his home, he is instructed to pass in front of the bus, stop and look before going out on the highway. The driver is ordered to wait until the student has arrived safely on the other side of the road.

The student-passengers are instructed not to talk or shout at people either inside or outside the bus and to keep their arms inside the bus, face forward, and remain in their seat while the bus is in motion.

CAPABLE CREW

The driver of each one of the buses is in full charge of the students. If trouble arises the driver has the authority to refuse a student transportation until such time as the trouble may be settled by the counselors or the principals.

Another safety precaution states that if a student must get off at a stop not his own, he must bring a statement to the school office from his parent or guardian. The office will then issue a permit which can be given to the bus driver.

Operating expense is kept to a minimum by a crew of maintenance men at the school, Larry Sylva, superintendent of buildings and grounds, Kenneth Faria and George Santos. These men have a fully equipped shop to take care of all minor maintenance and washing and greasing. They also have the buses warmed up each morning before they depart on their routes.

MOTORISTS CARELESS

The present well organized business of transporting students to Washington Union High School has come a long way since its origin in the school year of 1924-25, when three small buses transported 250 students.

Gravest concern to the drivers and school administration is the failure of many motorists to comply with the laws in regard to overtaking and passing school buses.

The law requires that all vehicles stop for school buses that are halted to load or unload passengers. Drivers report countless violations each day. At each of these reports jovial, mild-mannered "Pop" Gould bitterly declares, "So help me God, if any one of those fellows ever hits one of my youngsters I won't be responsible for what I might do."

DECOTO SCHOOL

The two eighth grade classes went on a hike up the Decoto Hills Monday for the second time this school year. They left at 9 o'clock and were back at school at 3 o'clock.

The eighth grade girls are now talking over their graduation plans. Miss Modesitt has brought fashion magazines to aid in discussing appropriate dresses for teen-agers.

Surprise!! Faculty members organized a softball team with Coach Jack Lee for their captain. They have challenged the boys' varsity team for a game today.

A new assistant executive administrator, Mr. Puffenberger, has been added to the Decoto school faculty this week. We hope he will enjoy working with us.

The basketball game that was played on Thursday, March 2, with Bret Harte, was 26-28 in favor of Bret Harte.

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

This little piece, "Father Forgets," that I am using in the column this week has become an American classic in journalism. It was first printed about 20 years ago, and has been reprinted in newspapers and magazines all over the country ever since.

Perhaps you have read it. If you have, read it again.

I found it especially appealing, as I have two sons. But you will find it equally appealing if you have daughters—or even if you have no children at all. The philosophy it embodies is good any time, any place, used on anybody.

FATHER FORGETS

By W. Livingston Larned
"Listen, son: I am saying this as you lie asleep, one little paw crumpled under your cheek and the blond curls stickily wet on your damp forehead. I have stolen into your room alone. Just a few minutes ago, as I sat reading my paper in the library, a stifling wave of remorse swept over me. Guiltily I came to your bedside.

These are the things I was thinking, son: I had been cross to you. I scolded you as you were dressing for school because you gave your face merely a dab with a towel. I took you to task for not cleaning your shoes. I called out angrily when you threw some of your things on the floor.

At breakfast I found fault, too. You spilled things. You gulped down your food. You put your elbows on the table. You spread butter too thick on your bread. And as you started off to play and I made for my train, you turned and waved a hand and called, "Good-bye, Daddy!" and I frowned, and said in reply, "Hold your shoulders back!"

Then it began all over again in the late afternoon. As I came up the road I spied you, down on your knees, playing marbles. There were holes in your stockings. I humiliated you before your boy friends by marching you ahead of me to the house. Stockings were expensive — and if you had to buy them you would be more careful! Imagine that, son, from a father!

Do you remember, later, when I was reading in the library, how you came in, timidly, with a sort of hurt look in your eyes? When I glanced up over my paper, impatient at the interruption, you hesitated at the door. "What is it you want?" I snapped.

You said nothing, but ran across in one tempestuous plunge, and threw your arms around my neck and kissed me, and your small arms tightened with an affection that God had set blooming in your heart and which even neglect could not wither. And then you were gone, pattering up the stairs.

Well, son, it was shortly afterwards that my paper slipped from my hands and a terrible sickening fear came over me. What has habit been doing to me? The habit of finding fault, of reprimanding—this was my reward to you for being a boy. It was not that I did not love you; it was that I expected too much of youth. I was measuring you with a yardstick of my own years.

And there was so much that was good and fine and true in your character. The little heart of you was as big as the dawn itself over the wide hills. This was shown by your spontaneous impulse to rush in and kiss me good-night. Nothing else matters tonight, son. I have come to your bedside in the darkness, and I have knelt there, ashamed!

It is a feeble atonement; I know you would not understand these things if I told them to you during your waking hours. But tomorrow I will be a real daddy! I will chum with you, and suffer when you suffer, and laugh when you laugh. I will bite my tongue when impatient words come. I will keep saying as if it were a ritual: "He is nothing but a boy—a little boy!"

I am afraid I have visualized you as a man. Yet as I see you now, son, crumpled and weary in your cot, I see that you are still a baby. Yesterday you were in your mother's arms, your head on her shoulder. I have asked too much, too much."

There, how did you like it? It doesn't matter how many times I read it, I get all choked up, and the tears start rolling down my cheeks, every time.

rites Monday for Mrs. Minnie Parks

Services were held from the parlors of the Chapel of the Palms, Centerville, on Monday for Mrs. Minnie Parks, 47, of Newark, who died in a San Leandro hospital last Thursday following a brief illness.

She was a native of Oakland and had been a resident of this vicinity for the past eight years.

She was the wife of Earl E. Parks; mother of LaVerne Cissell, Niles, and Bonnie Kerns, Niles; sister of Mrs. Rose Martin, Newark, Mrs. Ann Marshall, Newark, Alfred King, Pleasanton, Mrs. Aldina Soito, Newark, Fred King, Centerville, Mrs. Mabel Saul, San Jose, Mrs. Della McMello, Hayward, Miss Helen King, San Francisco, Frank Soares, San Pablo, and Frank King, Oakland.

KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Friends of the Charles Plumb family, former residents of Niles, now living in Hayward, will be saddened to hear of the tragic death of their son, Edgar, who was killed in an auto accident in Fresno early this week.

WE LEARNED SOMETHING

The banners which decorated First Street in Niles during February have been taken down. Silver dollars are disappearing from local commerce. Kraftile's Silver Anniversary has passed.

The project of C. W. Kraft was a complete success. In February the Kraftile Company paid out 22,000 silver dollars to meet the month's payroll and to settle local accounts.

The project demonstrated the value to a community of an industrial payroll. The source of those silver dollars that came into your hands was the Kraftile Company. If the Kraftile Company were not in Niles, those 22,000 silver dollars would not have circulated from hand to hand in the daily transaction of business.

During February retail business, as accurately as can be determined, was six and one-half per cent greater than in the same month last year. Why?

Because the merchants of Niles co-operated in a promotional program which featured "Silver Dollar Specials."

Local residents were invited by local merchants to buy the goods they needed in Niles. The stores not only united in making genuine efforts to offer a bigger dollar's-worth, but they advertised these bargains to you, our readers—and it paid them.

It paid you, too.

There's a saying about advertising: "If you have nothing in your store to advertise for sale, then advertise your store for sale." It's quite true.

Another interesting fact revealed by the payment of 22,000 in silver dollars locally is that a considerable amount of the money has disappeared. A check at banks as near to Oakland as San Leandro has shown that the silver money didn't leave town to any large extent.

Where is it, then? It is being saved—for future expenditure.

A thrifty community is a good place to live.

The entire experience of observing Kraftile's Silver Anniversary in such a unique manner has been profitable. Niles has learned some things it needed to know:

It pays to have industry in town.

It pays merchants to co-operate with each other.

It pays to advertise.

It pays to buy at home.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Newark Brownie Girl Scout Troop was reactivated at a meeting conducted by Mrs. Joseph Oswald of the Hayward Area Girl Scout Council, in the Newark Youth Center on Wednesday, March 1. A Mothers' Club, to cooperate with the new leaders, Mrs. Joe Souza and Mrs. J. C. Kennedy of Newark, was organized with Mrs. Edward Kettman as president and Mrs. William E. Dutra as secretary. Mrs. Edward Kettman is a former Girl Scout leader. The Brownies will meet every Wednesday at 3 p.m., starting March 15, and the Mothers' Club on the last Wednesday of every month at the Newark Youth Center, at 7:30 p.m.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 70 of Niles held a party at the Scout Hut for the incoming and outgoing officers Tuesday evening. The troop is planning an outing soon at Alum Rock Park near San Jose with both mothers and daughters attending.

Washington Township Adult Girl Scouts was represented by approximately 25 people from this area at the recent Recognition Dinner held Monday night at San Lorenzo. Service pins were presented to Mrs. Henry Vervais, Mrs. W. F. Lamoreux and Mrs. F. B. Pedersen, all of Niles, in recognition of five years or more service in Girl Scouting.

Brownie Troop 62 of Niles, with their leader, Mrs. Karl Kaiser, is currently working on sewing boxes which they fashioned from cigar boxes and lined with wallpaper. The troop meets every Monday afternoon in the kindergarten room at the Niles grammar school.

The district meeting of the Washington Township Girl Scouts was held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Lamoreux in Niles on Friday, March 3. Twenty adults attended. Chairman of the program committee, Mrs. John McGowan, revealed that plans had almost been completed for carrying out the Washington Township Girl Scout Court of Awards. The next district meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George C. Roeding on the California Nursery grounds on April 14 at 9:30 a.m.

A group of 16 Brownies will hold investiture services at a party to be given next Thursday, March 16, at 3 p.m., in the kindergarten room at the grammar school in Centerville. Mrs. John C. Whipple of Niles is their leader with Mrs. Ralph Goodwin of Centerville assisting.

Brownie Troop 11 of Niles met at the Scout Hut last Monday at 2 p.m. The group has been embroidering tea towels and are making coin purses of felt. Mrs. Adolph Souza is the leader and Mrs. Ruth Gonzales is co-leader.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 18, which meets at the high school in Centerville, visited Playland and Fleishaker Zoo in San Francisco last Saturday. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Keith Whipple of Decoto, and Mrs. Don Wolfe of Centerville, and Mrs. W. F. Lamoreux of Niles.

Two Brownie Troops, formed recently in Irvington, met at their regular meeting time Tuesday afternoon at the Irvington Youth Center in Irvington. Mrs. Fred Forsyth and Mrs. John Hupman are leaders of the 9-year-old group, and Mrs. R. W. Glauke and Mrs. Clifford Johnson are leaders of the 7 and 8-year-old group. A total of 27 girls are attending. An election of officers was held and the girls then discussed plans for investiture services and committees were chosen for carrying out the details. One group, in addition to planning for the investiture services, has shown great interest in learning to cook and they plan to take up cooking as their first project. Girls from St. Mary's School at Mission San Jose and Irvington Grammar School are among the girls attending these Brownie sessions.

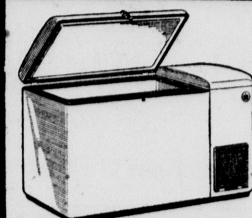

CENTERVILLE CHAMBER COMMITTEES NAMED

President Edgar Van Scoy, presiding over his first meeting since taking over the reins of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, announced the appointment of three new committees at the Wednesday luncheon meeting.

Lee Williams was named chairman of the watchman committee, to be aided by William Bauhofer and Romeo Brunelli. Dallas Paul and Leonard Miller were named to the welcoming committee and Louis Cardoza, Loren Marriott and Manuel Lewis were named to take over the membership duties.

SUNDAY DOINGS

Mr. and Mrs. James Norris of Milpitas came through Mission San Jose on their way to Vallejo, picked up Mrs. Mary Callahan, the grandmother of Mrs. Norris, and they all went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rose of that city for Sunday dinner. Mrs. Rose is Mrs. Norris' mother, former Irvington folks.

THE 'OLD BIRD' AGAIN

That old bird has been around again and this time left a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Callahan. He has been named Wayne Leslie, weighing 7 pounds and 6 ounces, and he and mommie are home to visitors now.

IT POURS

It never rains but it pours, so thinks Herman Medeiros, custodian at the elementary school and U. S. mail messenger of Mission. Monday he was using the motor driven lawn mower and it picked up a rock and threw it onto his foot, causing a very severe bruise. He is under the care of a doctor and has been ordered off his feet for a week. Stanley Cairns, one of the boys at school, is supervising the cleanup gang. Mr. Click is running the school bus, and P. M. Bottenberg is carrying the U. S. mail.

HOME FROM PHOENIX

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garcia and daughter, Lorene, who have spent a week in Phoenix, Arizona, with sister Kay (Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Burt and daughter, Katharine), have returned and reported that all are fine following their recent illness.

DANCE

The Mission San Jose Youth

Center will have a dance this week-end for couples only and they held their very first meeting in their new rumpus room in the Cunha Garage on Thursday evening. Tom Cunha and Frank Brown put the plywood up. This plywood had been saved since the Sesquicentennial for the purpose. Thanks to Frank Vieth also for his help and all the other fine folks who are interested in the welfare of the Youth Center.

TO VISALIA

Grandmother Hortense Andrade motored to Visalia with Mrs. Hortense and Mrs. Betty Andrade over the week-end to spend about two weeks with Mrs. Mary Faria. From there she will go to Hanford to visit the Venera family. Mrs. Cunha and Betty returned Sunday evening.

FIRE PREVENTION

The Mission Firemen are having a course at the school in fire prevention and how to save property by the scientific use of canvas. This course is proving very interesting as it is not a lecture but actual experience in doing the act.

TO YUBA CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reis, daughter Joanne and son Melvin, motored to Yuba City over the week-end to see Joe's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Catlano, the former Alice Reis of this town. They reported wonderful weather with the exception of a freak thunder shower. The peaches are blooming and the countryside looks elegant.

NEW SECRETARY

Miss Rosie Santos, daughter of Mrs. Marie Santos, is now employed at the Weibel Champagne Vineyards as their new secretary and bookkeeper.

AT LOOMIS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chambers, daughter Beverly and sons Ronnie and Weezer Fernandez, spent the week-end at Loomis with his mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chambers, and other relatives.

AN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Maude Dutra took another tumble one day last week and has a very badly sprained hip. She had been in the hospital over two years ago with a broken one and was on crutches for months. Now she is having to take it easy again because of the same hip.

WHAT'S THIS?

Heard around the post office: "Gee whiz, he sent me a card from Capitola letting me know he was in town so I can play the pinball machine."

IMMUNIZATION FOR ALL CHILDREN MADE AVAILABLE HERE

Diphtheria and smallpox in Southern Alameda County will be prevented if the drive launched this week by physicians in the southern end of the county and the Alameda County Health Department is successful.

Concerned by the fact that two out of three school children are not adequately safeguarded against diphtheria, the Health Department and physicians in the area are recommending that all parents of children under eleven years of age secure protection against diphtheria and smallpox for their children from the family doctor during the three-month period, March, April and May.

To meet the expected response caused by the drive, physicians will have on hand additional supplies of vaccine furnished by the Health Department. During this period, doctors are offering parents the special rate of $1 for each injection, and those unable to afford the fee will be cared for.

According to Dr. James Malcolm, county health officer, "many parents today think their children will not catch diphtheria because cases occur so infrequently. This is a mistaken idea, and as long as there is diphtheria present in our communities, children who are not protected are not safe. This summer, two children in Hayward had diphtheria."

The interest of the physicians in this problem is explained by Dr. Paul Dolan, president of the Southern Branch of the Alameda County Medical Society. "Physicians are more interested in preventing disease than curing it. They know that diphtheria is particularly dangerous for children. But they know also that science has given us tools for prevention—which are immunization against diphtheria and vaccination against smallpox."

The total amount in the School Land Fund of California in 1948 was approximately $12,000,000 with annual income amounting to about $800,000.

S. P. R. S. I. MEETING

The Centerville Council of S.P.R.S.I. No. 4 held its regular meeting for the month of March with a large attendance. Election of officers was held and the annual communion was discussed. All members are urged to attend the annual communion which will be held on Sunday, March 19, at the 8 o'clock mass at Holy Ghost Church. Breakfast will follow at the California Inn for the group. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Marie Brazil, Mrs. Angie Bettencourt or Mrs. Mary George not later than March 17.

The honored members for the day were Mrs. Marie Duarte and Mrs. Margaret Furtado, each one receiving a remembrance as a birthday gift. Refreshments were served to all as usual, and the afternoon was an enjoyable one. The next meeting will be held on April 5 at 2 p.m. at Parish Hall.

PRESBYTERIAN ACTIVITIES

Sunday, March 12—10 a.m., Sunday School for all ages; 11:15, morning worship; 3:30 p.m., High School Young People's meeting at the church and then the members will go to Pleasanton to a Westminster Fellowship.

Tuesday, March 14—1:30 p.m., Ladies Aid meeting at the church with Mrs. Howard Steward as hostess. Wednesday, March 15—7 p.m., choir practice; 8 p.m., Ruth Circle meeting.

Friday, March 17—Ham dinner, sponsored by Ruth Circle and Ladies Aid, open to the public. Tickets may be purchased from any member. Adults $1.25, children under 12, 50c.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

Friends from Oakland, Santa Cruz and Centerville dropped in to wish Mrs. Christine Hygelund of Oak Street a happy birthday on Wednesday, March 1. That evening Mr. and Mrs. Erle Hygelund and Diane of Centerville, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hygelund and family of San Jose enjoyed dinner at Mrs. Christian Hygelund's home in honor of her birthday.

YOUTH CENTER TO DANCE

The Catholic Youth Center group are planning a St. Patrick's dance, which will be held on March 18 at the Parish Hall. Any young people of high school age are invited to join this group.

CELEBRATE 50th ANNIVERSARY

Presentation of 50-year pins to three charter members and the first candidate highlighted the Golden Anniversary of Orient Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday. Ceremonies marking the 50th anniversary of the Chapter followed a dinner for chapter members at 6:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. Those who received the half-century awards included Miss Martha Mack of Irvington, Grace McClure Huxley of San Francisco, Mrs. Emma Hellwig of Mount Eden and Mrs. Etta Biddle of Newark. All past worthy matrons and patrons of the Chapter were honored during the anniversary ceremonies. Arrangements for the program were in charge of Worthy Matron Mrs. Ernestine Brewer of Newark. Mrs. Mildred Logan of Alvarado was in charge of dinner arrangements.

EIGHT POUNDER CAUGHT

My husband, Richard, and Dan DeCosta went on a fishing trip Sunday to Old River. They took a boat and went out on the river and, despite the weather, got an 8-pound bass. My husband was quite thrilled as this was his first fish caught this year and also the first fishing trip.

NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silva of Centerville are building a lovely home on Oak Street. The Silvas have two children, both girls.

EPISCOPAL ACTIVITIES

Services on Sunday, March 12, third Sunday in Lent—Holy Communion, 8 a.m.; Church School, 9:45 a.m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11. Monday, March 13—Vestry meeting. Tuesday, March 14—7:30 p.m., confirmation class. Wednesday, March 15—10:30 a.m., Holy Communion. Thursday, March 16—7:30 p.m., choir practice. Friday, March 17—7:30 p.m., evening prayer.

For the past nine weeks, through the Episcopal Churches in the United States, there has been a campaign of education referred to as "One World In Christ," aimed at informing members about the work being done at home and overseas and also in the field of Christian Education. Here in St. James Church, free pamphlets have been sent out and two sermons preached and one last fall. The campaign will end next Sunday when congregations throughout the nation, including ours, will hear, through radio receivers set up in the churches, a sermon by the Right Reverend Henry K. Sherrill, presiding bishop. In this area the sermon will be carried at 11:30 a.m. by radio station KFRC, KSJO and KSMO.

Last Friday evening a branch of the Girls' Friendly Society was organized with the following elected officers: president, Edna Zimmerman; vice-president, Louise Larsen; secretary, Velma Zimmerman; treasurer, Erleen Zimmerman; worship chairman, Barbara Manning; publicity chairman, Carol Hocking. Mrs. Edna Tyson is advisor of the group, with Mrs. F. B. Pedersen, assistant advisor. Mrs. Louise Burpee, national field consultant of the society, was the guest of honor.

IN THE HOSPITAL

Mr. William Furtado Sr. of 198 Main Street, is in the San Jose Hospital. He has been ill for about a month.

WEEK-END GUEST

Mrs. Arthur Twitchett of San Francisco was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weber of Thornton Avenue. Mrs. Twitchett formerly lived here in Centerville.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodden and children, Gary, Larry and Penny, recently moved to a home on Pine Street. The Wooddens are formerly of Yuba City. Mr. Woodden is connected with a construction firm in Los Banos.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gonzales of Parish Avenue entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joaquin DeValle and Gene at dinner last Saturday evening. A very delightful evening was spent.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel De Costa of San Mateo visited in Centerville last Sunday. They spent the day at the Phil Sousa residence and with other relatives and friends.

FAMILY GET-TOGETHER

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Steward and daughter, Jeanette, drove to Morgan Hill recently to help Mrs. Steward's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Williams, celebrate her birthday. Mrs. Steward's sister and family, Mrs. Powell Cunningham of Polo, Illinois, were also present, along with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker of Salinas. It was quite a family get-together as it has been several years since Mrs. Steward and her family have seen Mrs. Cunningham.

NEW CLASS STARTED

A Flower Arrangement class began Wednesday, headed by Mrs. Juanita Massa of Hayward, at the Washington Union High School.

ANNUAL COMMUNION

Knights of Columbus of Centerville will hold their annual joint communion with the Young Ladies' Institute on Sunday, March 12, at the Holy Ghost Church in Centerville at the 8 o'clock mass. Breakfast will follow at the high school at $1.25 per plate. All members are urged to attend.

FOOD SALE SATURDAY

A food sale, featuring a variety of home-made pies as the specialty, will be held in Newark this Saturday, starting at 10 a.m. The sale is being sponsored by the Women's Society of the Newark Presbyterian Church, and is under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. O. Grace.

"You can't make a bad cup of M-J-B"

Good news gets around. 43% of all M.J.B. users first tried it because friends and neighbors recommended it.

If your family is "coffee critical" make it easy on yourself. Switch to M.J.B. and serve coffee that's so good it's guaranteed to satisfy. Make it any way they like... mild, strong, in-between... use drip or regular grind... and this we promise: "You can't make a bad cup of M.J.B."

Accurate roasting is one of the secrets of M.J.B.'s success. An "individual bean roasting process" brings out extra flavor, extra aroma and gives you more all-round coffee goodness for your money. Maximum vacuum pack makes sure this famous coffee reaches you at its best. As thousands agree: "You can't make a bad cup of M.J.B."

So good we guarantee you'll like it.

SCOUT AWARD COURT
NEXT WEDNESDAY

Girl Scouts from all of Washington Township will meet at the Niles grammar school next Wednesday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. to participate in the Girl Scout Court of Awards.

The event is expected to draw a large crowd as it provides the opportunity for the townspeople to see first hand what the Girl Scouts are doing in the way of activities.

In addition to the exhibits on display, special ceremonies will be held to present awards and proficiency badges to the Scouts. Also a number of girls will be invested.

The evening will close with a short movie and community singing.

DECOTO TO SPONSOR
FLOAT AT HAYWARD

Sponsorship of a float in the Hayward Water Festival parade on Saturday, March 15, was voted by the Decoto Chamber of Commerce at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening.

The group also voted to furnish transportation for the boy Scouts on their camping trip to Yosemite on June 25 to July 2 and President Gonzales Paniagua named L. W. Musick to inquire as to bus rates from the various companies.

Members and all business men of Decoto are urged to attend the next meeting of the Township Chamber of Commerce at Newark at which time the possibility of the establishment of a credit bureau for the township will be discussed.

Russell Skidmore, instructor at the Decoto Elementary School, showed some movies on recreation. The meeting was closed with the serving of refreshments.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENT
CLASS OPENS HERE

A new class in flower arrangement, one of the most popular subjects offered by the Washington Evening School, opened this week and will continue to meet weekly at 1:30 p.m. each Friday at the high school.

IN ARIZONA

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barney and sons, formerly of Decoto and now of Tennyson, are on a trip to Arizona for business.

RETURNS FROM GEORGIA

Mrs. George Oliveria returned home last Friday from her trip to Georgia. She had a pleasant trip and has many snapshots of her many friends and relatives she visited there. She also visited with the Wilbur Avillas of Los Angeles on her trip home.

AT THE OPERA

We're off to the opera! Last Sunday my husband and my parents enjoyed the matinee performance of "Carmen" at the Memorial Opera House in San Francisco. Monday evening I attended the beautiful "Rigoletto" and on Wednesday evening "Faust."

BIRTHDAY

THIEF CAUGHT

Caught while trying to pawn the stolen camera equipment in a San Francisco pawn shop, Richard Dockery admitted he took the equipment from the apartment of Russell Skidmore of Decoto. Mr. Dockery told officers he rode a train from San Francisco to Fruitvale on the day of the robbery and hitch-hiked his way to the steel mill in Niles looking for work. Failing to find employment, he broke into the duplex apartment and took the equipment. He admitted a term in the Preston School for boys and released in 1949 as a result of being convicted of a safe-cracking job in San Jose, when $1700 was taken. He was also questioned about two recent safe crackings in this area but said he had nothing to do with them. Sheriff's deputies transported the man to Hayward where he was booked and fingerprinted pending disposition of his case.

RECOVERING

A speedy recovery to Minnie Garcia who returned home last week-end after an operation. Get well soon.

CHURCH OPENS

The small church across from the Salz warehouse, which was unoccupied for a long time until recently, when the local Boy Scouts repaired it for use as a meeting place will now again be opened for church services. The church services will be interdenominational and all are invited to attend.

SERVICES ARE HELD

Funeral services were held Monday from Sorensen Bros. Chapel in Hayward for Emile Tombs, age 85 years. He was the husband of the late Carrie Tombs, father of Bernhardt J. Tombs of Oakland.

Grace Caminada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kabrich, is a proud owner of a new car. Don Hitchen also is the owner of a 1948 convertible.

A Sunday School is being planned.

Deputy sheriffs were puzzled at the wandering of Alexander A. Pateracki, 47, of Los Angeles, who was found in a confused state of mind with slow reactions and in a dazed condition last Friday night on the Niles Road near Decoto, creating a traffic hazard. He told the deputies he wanted to go to San Francisco where plane tickets were awaiting his call. Tickets for an Oakland-Los Angeles afternoon flight Friday were found on him. Mr. Pateracki told the deputies he had not been drinking and was not ill. He was kept at the local substation for safekeeping while rush messages were sent to Los Angeles. Early Saturday morning he was transferred to the Highland Hospital and later a message from Los Angeles was received stating members of his family would arrive here later on that day to pick him up and return him to his home.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Little Patricia Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kabrich of Decoto Road, was the center of attention last Wednesday evening, March 8, when she celebrated her first birthday. Besides the two proud grandparents, Mr. Antonio Vierra of Decoto and Mrs. Alma Bettencourt of Centerville, others who helped Patricia celebrate were Tony Bettencourt of Centerville, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Largarticha and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kabrich, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cambra of Hayward, Theron Kabrich, Georgia Battista, Mr. and Mrs. L. Cambra and daughter Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Eloyd Cambra and family, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Silva and daughter Carol Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mello and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cambra. Everyone celebrated the birthday of Eloyd Cambra whose birthday fell on the same day as little Patricia's.

IN HOSPITAL

Sorry to hear Kenny Garcia was hospitalized last week-end.

TEEN-AGE PARTY

Betty Ann Ward was hostess on Saturday night for a group of teenagers, at her home on Whipple Road. The guests enjoyed themselves with dancing and refreshments. Those who attended were: Louisa Campa, Renie Delgado, Betty Jean Gonzales, Anita Garcia, Margaret Pagan, Annie Bovilla, Raul Orozco, Marce Campa, Freddie Sanchez, Ernie Delgado, Orle Valdez, Joe Aguilar, Richard Maria, and Gail Shipman from Niles. Everyone had a wonderful time.

SURPRISE PARTY

Rose Marie Gonzales was given a surprise party on her thirteenth birthday on March 6. Helping Rose Marie celebrated were Rita Sanchez, Madeline Hernandez, Alveta Campa, Ernie Soto, Rex Cordova, Raymond Orozco, Edward Sisneroz and Willie Galan. All enjoyed the records played, games and refreshments.

THIRD BIRTHDAY

Diane Rae Caminada celebrated her third birthday Tuesday evening with her grandparents, the John Tedeschis of Hayward, Grandfather Caminada, Mr. and Mrs. M. Vardanaga, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Tedeschi and daughter of San Leandro, her brothers, Rinaldo Sal and David Allen, Daddy and Mommie (your Decoto reporter). Diane received many lovely presents and a large birthday cake. Invited but unable to come were

CATHOLIC FORUM
MEETING MARCH 15

A Catholic Families' Life Forum panel meeting, open to the public, will be held at the visual education room at Washington Union High School on Wednesday, March 15 under the sponsorship of the Southern Alameda County Y. L. I. District.

The Rev. Father Lacey will preside over the meeting and Dr. Robert DeVoe will be the Catholic doctor and Mrs. Urban Sur will portray the Catholic mother.

On Sunday, March 26, Passion Sunday, the public is invited to attend the "Day of Recollection," which will be held at the Dominican Convent at Mission San Jose.

Andy Caminada and Mr. and Mrs. J. Buonassissi of Lafayette.

NEW SCHOOL OFFICIAL

The Decoto school has a new executive assistant who is Mr. P. J. Puffenbarger. He was the professor of education at the University of Nevada and in charge of teacher training of public schools in Reno and Sparks, Nevada.

He was recently appointed by the board of trustees, thus relieving Mr. L. W. Musick in both school and playground activities. During the war he was head of selective service in California and Nevada. A hearty welcome, Mr. Puffenbarger.

TO SANTA ANITA

Mr. and Mrs. "Dutchie" Re last week-end motored to Santa Anita to get Frank Pimentel, Mrs. Re's father, who was working at the track there.

Most silver produced in California is a by-product from mining of gold, copper, lead and zinc.

CARMEN IN SAN JOSE
MONDAY NIGHT

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," starring Monty Woolley, the incomparable comedian and screen star, will make the attraction in the San Jose auditorium on next Sunday night, March 12. As Sheridan Whiteside in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," Monty Woolley is supposed to be an eminent man of letters. Invited as a literary "lion" to the house of an adoring hostess, he slips on the ice and is taken into the house to stay in a wheeled chair, not only "to dinner" but for an indefinite period, during which he bribes the servants, drives the family upstairs, taking over the lower floor, persuades the children to run away, and generally completely upsets the entire household. The supporting cast is made up of seasoned New York actors.

THE SAN CARLO OPERA COMPANY

takes its production of "Carmen" to the auditorium, San Jose, on next Monday night, March 13. Martha Larrimore, a new "find," beautiful and exotic, will sing the role of Carmen, while David Poleri, the Italian "tenor Pinza," will sing the part of the betrayed lover, Don Jose. Anton Marco, Mina Cravi, Fausto Bozza, Adrien La Chance, Dianne de Sanctos and Lorraine Calacagno are others of the principals. Lydia Arlova heads the "Carmen" ballet and Carlos Naresco conducts the orchestra.

"Carmen" has always been one of the most popular of all operas, with its "Habanera," "Seguidilla," "Toreador" song, smugglers' songs, the card trio song, and the duets, choruses and ensembles. Gay color and swift action make the opera highly entertaining.

EASTER SEAL FUND
DRIVE OPENS HERE

The Handicapped and Crippled Children's Guild of Alameda County yesterday opened its annual Easter Seal fund drive by mailing 150,000 sheets of Easter Seals to residents of the county.

The month-long drive is headed here by Mrs. E. H. Hirsch, Irvington.

Mrs. Hirsch stated this week that last year the local Guild furnished 257 physically handicapped children with hospital, medical and surgical care, physiotherapy and occupational therapy treatments, braces, crutches, dental work, eye glasses, and many other services. The children aided were all from this county and were those whose parents could not meet any or all of the cost of treatment, and those who could not get aid through other agencies.

Donations for the seals should be returned to the Guild, 5017 Grove Street, Oakland, before April 9.

NEW OFFICERS FOR NECONEA THETA RHO

New officers elected by Neconeta Theta Rho Girls Club at their last meeting were: president, Lenore Lammi; vice-president, Charlene O'Brien; recording secretary, Maxine Weissenbacher; financial secretary, Margaret Cole; treasurer, Eunice Borgward.

The appointive officers will be named at the installation ceremonies to be held on April 28 at Odd Fellows Hall in Irvington, according to Mrs. Edna Heschler, advisor.

Sixty-one million acres of forest and wild lands are in California.

PAPER COLLECTION IN NILES SOON

Save your paper! Save your scrap metal!

The Boy Scouts of Troop 2, Niles, are planning a paper and scrap metal drive on Saturday, March 18. This will serve two purposes. First, it will relieve you, the housekeeper, of all of that old paper and scrap metal you've been hating to throw away; and it will also provide the Scouts with funds to go on a camping trip in the Sierras this summer, as the proceeds from the sale of the metal and paper will go into the Scout general camping fund.

The Scouts will make a door-to-door canvass for paper and scrap, or, if you are not at home when they call, you may phone Scoutmaster Tom Robbins at Niles 7031.

California forests are at present growing about a billion and a half board feet of lumber annually.

STUDENTS WIN PRAISE FOR MARCH OF DIMES CAMPAIGN

The students of the Alvarado Elementary School won the plaudits of all the community and the chairmen of the recent March of Dimes campaign for their splendid efforts in raising money for the annual drive.

The students, under the chairmanship of Beverly Davilla, raised a total of $212.45, far outdoing the $56 raised in 1948 and the $170 in 1949.

CARD PARTY AT NEWARK FRIDAY

March 17 is St. Patrick's Day, but it's also a big day for the Newark P.T.A., for on that evening they are giving a public bridge and whist party at the school.

The party starts at 8 o'clock. During the course of the evening refreshments of home-made cake will be served.

Mrs. William Dutra is general chairman. On the committee are Mrs. Ann Castro, in charge of tickets; Mrs. Vera Taylor, refreshments; Mrs. Lillian Lloyd, setting up of tables; and Mrs. Julia Harris, prizes.

The teachers will assist in the serving.

NEWLYWEDS . . . The just-married Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Naso of Cupertino are shown above with Mrs. Leonard Lucio of Newark, who attended the bride. The couple was united in marriage on Valentine's Day by Judge E. A. Quaresma. Mrs. Naso is the former Lillian Pirulli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bettencourt of Irvington.

Newark Man is Married in Reno

It was a Reno wedding last Saturday for Bill Adams of Newark and Allene Newman of Hayward. The Christian Church was the setting for the nuptials.

Accompanying the couple to Nevada were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutton of Niles.

The bride, daughter of Jack Newman of Hayward, recently completed a beauty course in Oakland. Her husband, son of Mrs. Ella Adams of Newark, is employed at the California Pottery at Niles.

And Now a Girl

Mrs. Bea Fournier of Niles is a very happy grandmother this week. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Seattle, who have two little boys, now have a baby daughter. Mrs. Fournier said she was hoping so much for a girl that she was too excited over the news to ask how much the baby weighed. She did find out her name, however, which is Nancy Linette.

HELEN VIEUX, JACK PARRY BETROTHED; WILL BE MARRIED SOME TIME IN JUNE

"Helen and Jack", on cocktail napkins, announced to about fifty friends of one of the township's most popular young couple, Helen Vieux and Jack Parry, that the two will soon become man and wife. The announcement was made at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Vieux, at a cocktail party last Sunday.

Thus is removed from the romance mart one of Niles' most eligible bachelors and one of its most comely maidens.

Helen, presently employed as a bookkeeper at the Niles Electric, is a graduate of Washington High, and also attended Heald's Business College.

Jack, assistant manager at the Niles branch of Central Bank, is also a graduate of Washington High, and, during the war, saw service in the Army.

The couple has made plans for a June wedding, the exact date yet to be announced.

LEONARD SMITH AND BRIDE TO LIVE IN ELLSWORTH TRACT

A romance that began during the war when he was serving in the Marine Corps, culminated in marriage recently for Leonard Smith of Niles. His attractive brunette bride is the former Alice Rhodes of Alabama.

The bridegroom met his wife in Los Angeles when she was visiting her aunt there in the early part of the war. The demands of war separated them, however, and he was sent to the South Pacific and she went back to Alabama. They continued to correspond, and in 1946 she came to Los Angeles and he again visited her there. When she returned again to her home in Alabama, after working for a while in Los Angeles, Leonard decided he'd better do something about the distance between them, so he went back to Alabama in February to claim his bride. The couple was married at a civil ceremony at Columbus, Mississippi on February 10.

Since that time they have been touring the country, taking in the Mari Gras, Carlsbad Caverns, Las Vegas, and other points of interest. They are living in Richmond until their new home on Goodrich Avenue in the Ellsworth Orchard is completed.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith of Richmond, former Niles residents.

MAHATMA GHANDI'S LIFE DISCUSSED AT DECOTO DISCUSSION GROUP MEETING

By ETHEL AVILLA

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held last Wednesday when the Decoto Discussion Group met at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Bernie Joseph, who served a delicious luncheon at noon.

Under the very able leadership of Mrs. Lewis Musick, the group discussed "Lead, Kindly Light" by Vincent Sheean, and the great depth of the author's sincerity in presenting the life, power and teaching of Mahatma Gandhi was apparent to all.

Mrs. Musick spoke of the author's relation to world events in the past few years; of his active participation as a foreign correspondent in almost every theater of action of World War II, and as a result, his belief that the "irresistible" force or non-violence and the philosophy behind it will eventually lead to world peace in this atomic age.

The author's love and understanding of Gandhi and his work is reflected throughout this beautifully written book.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Avilla. Mrs. Ed Goulart will lead the discussion of "Drinkers of the Wind" by Carl Raswan.

October Wedding For Dolly Silveira

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Silveira of Centerville announced the engagement of their daughter, Dolly, to Bob Rose of Irvington on February 25 to the many friends and relatives present at the announcement party held at their home.

Dolly is a journalism and political science major at San Jose State.

Bob, son of Mrs. Bertha Rose of Irvington, attended Sacramento J. C. and excelled in athletics. He signed with the Cleveland Indians while at college and has made baseball his profession.

Both attended W.U.H.S. and were active in school activities.

The engagement news was accented with their names, "Dolly and Bob," printed on the orchid cocktail napkins and book matches in gold across the corners. The mantle was decorated with almond blossoms and six orchid candles, arranged by Mrs. J. D. Gomes of Niles.

The dining room table was carried out in orchids and gold. The cake, in the theme colors, read, "Congratulations, Dolly and Bob." The engaged couple received very lovely gifts and Dolly was presented with an original hat by Alwyn Lewis, of straw trimmed with green and watermelon, velvet ribbon. The wedding has been tentatively set for early October.—Irene Mendonca

The FARMERS CORNER

by Ralph H. Taylor
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

The modern version of "Button, button, who's got the button?" is being revived in the halls of Congress as it attempts to find new tax sources, but the players have substituted money for buttons. Thus, those who would be relieved themselves and have their burdens put on the shoulders of their competitors have found it profitable to point the finger at the farmers' co-operators, charging them with tax evasion.

The spearhead behind this drive is the National Tax Equality Association and the National Associated Businessmen whose supporters and members are largely competitors of the farmers' co-operators. Since they claim to represent small business men, it is interesting to note that even as representatives of these two organizations were appearing before the Ways and Means Committee on the question of taxation of co-operators, the House Small Business Committee issued a report stating that neither NTEA nor NAB "truly represents small business."

Both organizations are avowedly fighting for tax equality, and in that guise state that the co-operators are evading one billion dollars in taxes annually. But the Secretary of the Treasury says that if the statutory exemption were removed entirely, it would bring in substantially less than 20 million dollars and that the cost of collecting that relatively small amount would eat up much of the income.

The NTEA constantly speaks of farmers' co-operators as "tax free." The facts do not bear out the statement. These co-operators do pay taxes and plenty of them. They pay property taxes on land, buildings, equipment, and inventory just as does any other private business. They pay social security taxes, license taxes, and income taxes on any profits accruing to the co-operators.

The great cry of tax exemption boils down to this: By accepting a number of restrictions on their operations not applying to ordinary corporations, the cooperative is exempt from paying income tax on the limited dividends, amounting only to interest, that it can pay on its capital stock and on certain unallocated reserves that may in the discretion of the Treasury Department be allowed for necessary purposes. These, too, are small and the tax from them would be inconsequential.

That the small exemptions allowed the co-operators are at least offset by the disadvantages of the restrictions placed on them is evidenced by the fact that only approximately half of the co-operators claim the exemption. Half of them have abandoned it and more are doing so with the passage of time.

Furthermore, co-operators are but a very small part of American business. Of the 2,616,966 wholesale and retail organizations listed in the last Federal Census, 86.4 per cent are proprietorships and partnerships, 13.1 per cent are corporations other than co-operators, and only one-half of the one per cent (.5 per cent) are co-operators. Thus co-operators are a minute fraction of the 86.9 per cent of American wholesale and retail business which is not subject to business income taxes because, as business entities, they acquire no income or profit. The charge that tax exemption is causing expansion of farmer co-operators is causing expansion of farmer co-operators with "jet-propelled" speed is not borne out by the facts. Official federal figures presented by Karl Loos at the congressional hearings show that the volume of farmers' marketing co-operators amounted to 23.4 per cent of total marketings in the 1930-31 season, but only 23.8 per cent in the 1947-48 season, a decline of 4.6 per cent.

For farmers' purchasing co-operators it is about the same. In 1930-31 purchasing co-operators' business amounted to 2.8 per cent of total receipts from cash marketings. In 1947-48 this business amounted to 4.4 per cent of cash marketings, a gain of only 1.6 per cent in almost 20 years.

Cooperative attorney Loos has also pointed out that many corporations pay no income tax because, like co-operators, they have no income. In the 10-year period ending in 1944, an average of 226,000 corporations paid taxes while an average of 236,000 paid no taxes because they reported no net income. The corporation which paid no taxes, at the same time, paid total dividends averaging $280,000,000 a year.

The distinction was effectively summed up by Loos when he told the congressional committee that "a cooperative is in business to make a profit for its patrons; a proprietary corporation is in business to make a profit out of its patrons." And it might be added that the farmer pays income tax on the added profit the cooperative makes possible.

He further pointed out that the proprietary corporation may, and sometimes does, operate exactly as a cooperative does, and on such operation where there is no profit it pays no tax.

The trouble is the co-operators' competitors have said they want to tax the funds that have been put up by, and have always belonged to, the members and never to the cooperative, thus wanting to lay heavier taxes on farmers' co-operators than on their own forms of business.

The Editor, Sir;

Dear Mr. Batman:

As the March of Dimes of 1950 comes to an end, we realize how indebted we are to the press for its fine cooperation.

Your newspaper, in particular, was most generous in space given to the fight polio campaign which began January 15. Funds raised in this drive will be administered to provide direct aid for Alameda County Polio victims. We will give you a report from time to time throughout the year.

All of us connected with the March of Dimes extend a hearty thank you.

Yours very truly,

JOHN F. HASSLER
Chairman.

THERE'S A BETTER WAY TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE

by the
General Electric Consumers Institute

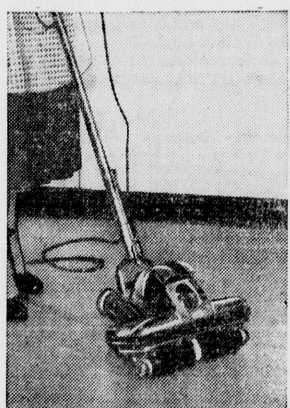

This is the season for entertaining, and even though you gave your house a thorough cleaning for the holidays, the job will have to be done again and again. Walls, woodwork, floors and carpets demand most attention, but here are some tips from the General Electric Consumers Institute which may give you a new approach to the work ahead.

Walls

Dust your walls frequently so that they are never badly soiled. Before you wash them, know the kind of paint or paper you are dealing with. There are cleansers on the market, either in liquid or powder form, which should be used on water-base paints or non-washable wallpapers. Always start at the bottom of the wall and work up, otherwise the dirty water will trickle down and leave streaks which are difficult to remove. Sponge the surface very lightly with the wash solution; never rub.

Woodwork

For enameled woodwork, use a preparation which waxes as it cleans to protect against dust and fingerprints. Rather than scrub flat paint, which doesn't clean easily with water, use one of the all-purpose cleansers.

Use the waxing attachment on your vacuum cleaner to get a smooth polish on linoleum and wood floors.
